My dear children, I urge your close attention, for my Son has allowed me to be here. Please, my little ones, put aside your falsehoods and fears. There is too much negativity acting as a catalyst to human destruction. I invite you instead to draw closer to one another in prayer. Renew prayer in your families and devotion to spending more time with Jesus. It is urgent! There are great struggles about to unfold. Division in families is leading to division in the Church. Reconciliation is urgent!

I have asked for prayer, conversion and penance; and initially you took the steps to procure your relationship with God, but then reverted to your old ways. I have asked for obedience to My Pope, but division is resulting. The need for prayer, reconciliation, harmony, love and conversion is now urgent!

Renounce what is preventing you in your spiritual growth. Read the Holy Scriptures, and listen to the Holy Spirit speak the message of My Son. Begin right now to solidify your relationship with God by loving yourselves and restoring your self-respect. Cease running from yourselves.

You cannot love your countrymen if you do not love yourselves. You are walking ways of power, instead of Love. The greatest sin is that which destroys Love. This is urgent! The effects of this wickedness are causing jealousy, hatred, killings and divisions. War, power struggles and economical warfare are surfacing from the lack of Love.

My Son is tired, very tired. The faith in God is forgotten. The time is coming when every man and woman on this earth will know that God exists. All will have a glimpse of the state of their souls. Those seconds will seem like eternity. Your love of gold and silver is about to become glittering dust and be swept away. Spiritual warfare exists in the heavens, and you must now live in the perfection of your faith. The wicked are con- vinced that they are invincible, but they are not.

Do not be afraid. To all His faithful ones God promises victory over the powers of evil and the world. Know, my little ones, that only God can make you holy. You can receive God's Seal on your souls only by abandoning your will to Him. God's Love will shower you and replace everything, if you accept it. Bless you, my little ones, and thank you for responding to my URGENT call!
